

Boston, 15th of June 2021

Boston (MA), June 17, 2021: An Aurum Dynamics Corporation (AADC), a company incorporated in the State of Delaware, is pleased to announce that it has received approval from the Vienna Stock Exchange for admittance to trading for its previously announced bonds issue. The units are identified on the exchange as Collateralized Convertible Bonds Aurum A2 with ISIN AT0000A2MK62 and will begin trading June 17, 2021.

The Financing involves the sale of up to 120,000 units (“Aurum A2 Units”) by AADC at a price of US$1,000 per Aurum A2 Unit, with Aurum A2 Unit consisting of a convertible bond in the principal amount of US$1,000 (a “Note”). The Notes would be secured against certain assets of AADC; bear interest at a rate of 5.5% per annum payable and have a term of five years. With the consent of the holder of the Note, AADC could prepay all or any portion of the principal amount outstanding under such Note at any time, provided that any prepayment in whole or in part of the Note would cause the Convertible Bonds Aurum A2 to immediately expire.

Investors interested in these units can obtain additional information from the Company at soc@an.gold.

Proceeds from the AADC Financing will be used to further develop the Company’s business objectives, the purchase of gold, and the acquisition of companies, projects and other assets. Certain of the proceeds will also be put aside in order to ensure interest payments can be made. Finder’s fees, in accordance with United States and Canada policy, will be paid in connection with the AADC Financing.
